IMPORTANT  TERMS AND CONDITIONS **
PLEASE READ BEFORE BIDDING

Please be aware that all goods sold in our auctions are second hand and The Sale of Goods Act 1979 (as amended) does not apply to any item purchased at one of our auctions. All items are available to view prior to the auction and it is at the purchasers' own risk whether they choose to view the items or not.

All Lots are sold as shown with any faults, errors of description and imperfections. The Auctioneer shall not be held responsible for the date, age, authenticity, period or condition of any lot. Every effort is made to ensure that all items, autographs etc., are original and authentic.

Nick Barber Auctions accept no responsibility for the accuracy of any statement, whether printed in a catalogue or made orally, as to grading, authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance and condition. All such statements are ones purely of opinion and are not to be taken as being, or implying, warranties, guarantees or representations of fact. The auctioneers reserve the right in forming their opinion, to consult and rely on any expert or authority considered by them to be reliable. Ample opportunity is given for inspection. Each purchaser, by making a bid for a lot, is deemed to have understood all the Conditions of Sale and to have satisfied themselves as to the condition of the lot and the accuracy of its description, including whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired.

The Auctioneers, at their discretion, may modify any description or statement in the catalogue.

BIDDING

In making any bid or commission bid the purchaser accepts that attention has been drawn to these conditions of sale, and agrees to be bound by them.

The highest bidder shall be the purchaser.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bid, and regulates the advance of bidding.

The Auctioneer reserves the right of absolute discretion should a dispute occur concerning a sale, including the right to offer any disputed lot for re-sale.

Where a Vendor has imposed a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on his/her behalf.

Before commencement of the Auction prospective purchasers must register their name and address and be issued with a bidding number. Failure to do so gives the Auctioneer the right to disregard any unregistered bid and re-enter the lot for sale.
